Basketball/NBA

by Drew (Teepee)

On June 13, 2019, the Toronto Raptors beat the Golden State Warriors to win the finals. They won by 4 points with Kawhi Leonard as their star. Here's how the 12 seconds went. The Warriors had the ball with 12 seconds left (they were down by 1). Andre Iguodala passed it to somebody who passed it to Steph Curry who got a three off and missed. Then it went to Draymond Green who called a timeout but they had no timeouts left so it was a technical. Kawhi Leonard took the free throw, made it, and they got the ball. They had 9 seconds left. Kawhi got the ball, got fouled, made the bonus free throws so they won by 4.

Once upon a time there was a girl at Camp Whippoorwill who went to the bathroom without telling the counselor so they left. When the girl got back she couldn't find them so she walked down to the creek. She found a house. She went in to find help but then the door locked and she got stuck. She cried so much that she turned green and her nose became pointy. So when the kids go on creek hikes they see her house. The End.
