My Week by Morgan (Log Cabin)

I've had a great week at camp. I have done everything I can dream of. Its name is Whippoorwill. I am in Log Cabin. I am always outside. I have made lots of friends. I don't want this week to end. I hope you have enjoyed my article.

George After Dark by Abe (Teepee)

It was quiet in the bunny's space at Whippoorwill. Too quiet. George the bunny sat down, being the only one awake. He hated being owned by humans. They would pick him up without asking and then start to pet him in a way he didn't like! He was living too! Suddenly his thoughts were interrupted by a squirrel. "You look sad, mister," he said. "Ya need anything?" "An acorn would be nice," said George. The squirrel gave him an acorn and ran away. George sat with the acorn and wondered what it would be like to be free.

Riddle by Hannah (Log Cabin)

Red donkey, orange donkey, yellow donkey, green donkey, blue donkey, purple donkey. What next? Pot-of-gold donkey!

Wild tiger cub trying to kill a bird & its babies. By Caroline (Log Cabin).

Jokes

by Marlowe (Teepee)

What did the grape say when it got stepped on? Nothing — it just let out a little whine!

by Else (Log Cabin)

What do you call a circle that claps? A round of applause!

Rap by Pippy the Goat (Teepee)

I'm a goat and I don't want to gloat
But I'm the greatest of all time
I'm so prime and now I'm runnin' out of time.

Interview with Taylor by MC (Teepee)

So, Miss Taylor, I understand that you went missing? Yes, I did.

Why is that? Because it was raining very hard and I wanted to avoid puddles.

So, Taylor, rumors spread from people to people and I was wondering what did you see in the woods? And, more importantly, how did you get there? I was trying to take the long way and got lost in the rain and wound up on the trail. Then I heard a growling noise behind me. I quickly climbed up the treehouse and, low and behold, it was the Whippoorwill Monster!

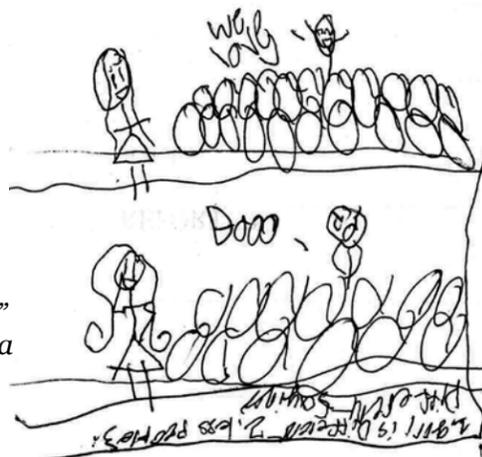

Wow! How did you escape?! The rain started pouring down, and he left to go find shelter.

What a lovely story - I'm glad for your sake. Yeah, me too.

Destiny Interview by Olivia (Teepee)

What is your favorite activity at camp?

Creek play.

How long have you been a counselor? I have been a counselor for 6 years.

Did it hurt when you got taped to the pole at tie dye? Not really.

Jonwik Caught!

by Sara (Log Cabin)

Giant cannibal crawdad Jonwik was caught in the session of creek play! Murderer of King Dad and Big Mama. I, as a witness, recall it being half a foot long! Bigger than both his victims! Caught by Sam and spotted by James. Unfortunately, he was released back to his lifelong desire. I am reporter Sara signing off.

Interview with Ellie

by Jane (Log Cabin)

Favorite food? Tacos.

Favorite sport? Soccer.

Favorite activity? Coloring.

Favorite flower? Sunflower.

Drawing by Audrey (Teepee)

Newspaper by Jackson (Teepee)

There's only 1 (yes, I mean 1) person for newspaper today. There was a boy who felt really happy. So he came to brighten someone's day and so he came to the newspaper since no one was there.

Counselor Shelby replies: Jackson so candidly told me he only signed up for newspaper because I had no one else sign up. Thanks, Jackson, for brightening my day! You're a cool dude.

A River Adventure by Lily (Log Cabin)

One time, a boy and girl named Lila and Bob went to play at a river. The Mississippi River, to be exact. First they played "catch the ball" and then they looked for creatures.

Out of nowhere, Bob spotted a water skipper and wondered how it could walk on water. He wondered if he could do it too. So what do you think he did? He tried it! Unfortunately, humans can't walk on water. So he drifted down the river. Lila tried to get him, but she didn't want to get stuck. Down and down he drifted. Hours and hours passed. Soon, it would be night time and there would be scary noises and creepy animals. And, as night approached, that's exactly what happened.

The second it was daytime, Bob spotted a farm. Bob stood up and walked over. But he tripped into a mud puddle and got his shoes ruined. So he went to a shoe store. While he was there, he met a woman named Riley. Bob asked her where the airport was. It was an hour away. He did the drive anyway. He flew back home in about thirty minutes. Everybody was so happy to see him. Bob had made it back home and he got new shoes!

Interview with Abi by Marlowe (Teepee)

Why did you decide to become a director instead of staying a counselor? I wanted to challenge myself a little more.

What is your favorite activity to teach? Creek hike.

What is your favorite activity to do? Horses.

Who is your favorite animal? Tinker.

JoJo Interview by Eleanor (Teepee)

Favorite activity? Friendship bracelets.

Do you make friendship bracelets? Of course.

Do you like cheese? I LOVE cheese.

How old are you? I turn 19 on Saturday.

Tie-Dye

Article and drawing by Ainsley (Teepee)

Recently I was tie-dyeing shirts. Everyone was waiting and then someone had the idea that we should tape Destiny to the wall. So we used one roll of tape and kept covering her.

Fishing

Campers are catching lots of fish this summer! This Log Cabin camper caught a large sunfish on Thursday morning!

Emeline Interview by Else (Log Cabin)

What is your name? Emeline.

How old are you? 18.

Who are your best friends? Kaitlyn and Carter.

What is your favorite color? Red.

Farming by Atia (Teepee)

One day Atia and Kara were at farming. They went into the chicken coop and they found an egg. It had poop on it so Atia made Kara hold it. They were going to the goats when Kara dropped the egg. They picked it up and threw it away but even after they washed it there was still a mark.

About Jane by Ellie (Log Cabin)

Jane's favorite color is teal and her favorite food is mac and cheese. Her favorite sport is basketball and her favorite emoji is nerd face.

A Poem by Elizabeth (Log Cabin)

If I were a tadpole I would swim all about.

If I were a tadpole I would catch rides on shoes.

But now I'll take another day or two and stay in my egg till the end of the egg days.
