

Whippoorwill Weekly

Written for campers, by campers

Session 9: July 27-31

Bus Spirit Day

by Britt (Bear Cubs)

We had a Bus Spirit Day. We sang and it was fun. Red Fox won 2nd place.

I Love Whippoorwill

by Cate C. (Log Cabin)

How much I love Whippoorwill! I love camp so much because it is so fun. You can make lots of friends too. The End of my story.

Log Cabin Bullseyes

Congratulations to Log Cabin campers Eli L. and Griffin J. who made bullseyes in Archery this week!

Bus Spirit Week is always a highlight of the summer. This year the Blue Bison bus (top photo) won first place - for the first time ever! The Red Fox bus won second place (lower photo). Congratulations to all our campers and staff for going above and beyond in this fun competition!

The Jumpy Frog

by Lydia S. (Log Cabin)

Log Cabin was hanging out in the treehouse. Meanwhile, there was a Teepee group at the Nature Museum that caught a frog. It was very jumpy. They showed Log Cabin and it almost jumped out of their hands! She caught it in the other hand and took it to the Nature Museum.

Farming Interest Group

by June B. (Log Cabin)

Log Cabin went to see the goats. People went inside the cage. The goats attacked each other. We fed them. One of the boys got attacked! Then we went to see the chickens. There was a baby rooster. We had fun!

Bear Cub Archery

by Nolan (Bear Cubs)

Ruby shot a bullseye. Dalton shot his first bow and arrow without help but he didn't know how to. One of Jack's friends shot two bullseyes.

Interview with Mango

by Andrew G. (Log Cabin)
