A Story

By Geneva (Log Cabin)

Philippe always talked about the Pickles nation. Camp Whippoorwill was so so fun. There were so many counselors like Duke, Zoey, Katelyn, Kaylee, Parker, Paul, Lake, Emily, Sabrina, Greg, Mark and of course Rienne. One day it was tie dye day. Some people brought a white shirt to tie dye.

Geneva once signed up for creek play. She found creek money but then she lost it. She was so sad then. She found another one. The End.

A Poem about Camp

By Counselor Laura Grace

Whippoorwill, Oh Whippoorwill
How lovely is your camp.
The grass is green
The sun is out.

Campers walk about.
Some play games
While others chill
Singing songs out loud.

Days are long, weeks are short
As summer comes and goes.
Campers laugh and make new friends.

Counselors give their best.
Summers come and summers go.
And everybody knows.
Whippoorwill, oh Whippoorwill
How lovely is your camp.

Whippoorwill Weekly reporters are hard at work!
